

2014 Student Design Competition Winners

Design to an Opportunity – Structural Challenge

Students design a structure that accomplishes a given task while accounting for converting challenges.

First Place Winners – “Recruiting Standee”

Dunwoody College of Technology: Stephanie Burdoph, Charlotte LaCour, Jenna Weiler, Dan Mueller, Noah Rabinowitz

Second Place Winners – “SLO Skyline”

California Polytechnic State University – San Luis Obispo: Ikaika Velasco, Andrew Morey, Emily Mallett, Patrick Salibi

Third Place Winners – “The Surfing Cowboy”

California Polytechnic State University – San Luis Obispo: Nicole Hermann, Gregg Yasuda, Victor Sanchez-Zapata, Alyssa McPadden

Design to an Opportunity – Graphics Challenge

Students design graphics for the challenge using one of the following processes; line or screen art, screened images, process or modified process color or digital printing.

First Place Winners – “Recruiting Standee”

Dunwoody College of Technology: Stephanie Burdoph, Charlotte LaCour, Jenna Weiler, Dan Mueller, Noah Rabinowitz

Second Place Winners – “Skully Stand Up”

Millerville University: Hynea Redd, Audrey Ventura, Melvin Fields, Walter Simko, Corey Davis, Samantha Wnuck

Third Place Winners – “Blaze Your Own Path”

University of Texas at Arlington: Samantha Garcia, Trishna B.C, Amanda Turnage, Danyel Harris

Corrugated as Art

Students design anything of their choosing out of corrugated.

First Place Winners – “Minecraft”

THE INDEPENDENT PACKAGING ASSOCIATION

Clemson University, Team "Pack Attack": Brandon Francois, Emily Elliot, Linden Holder, Arif Javed, Edward Couvillion